Sandra Duffy is a Realtor Associate with Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage in the Princeton Office. She held a Real Estate Broker's license for more than 40 years, specializing in residential sales. As a top producer she has sold properties throughout Central Jersey. She continues to be active in real estate while semi-retired.

Sandy was born in Princeton and lived there until attending Mount Holyoke College. After spending seven years as a military wife, she returned to the area and raised her 4 children in Hightstown. She and husband Bruce, a retired helicopter pilot, then moved to West Windsor, where they have lived nearly 30 years.

Her introduction to music was through piano lessons from age 4 and singing in the church choir as a young child. She was fortunate to have graduated from Princeton High School where Tom Hilbish was the choir director and she sang in both the choir and the girls' ensemble, which performed rigorous music such as the complete staged opera, Mascagni's Cavalleria Rusticana, and the premier of Rogers Session's Mass.

After a break of several years while raising 4 children, Sandy sang first in the Hightstown-East Windsor Chorale and after moving to West Windsor joined VOICES Chorale, where she has sung for over 25 years and served on the Board of Trustees for 6. She also acts as (volunteer) organist at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and has served as its (volunteer) choir director. She is also on the Program Committee of Princeton Society of Musical Amateurs. She has sung with Princeton Pro Musica since 2010 and served as a trustee since 2015. Husband Bruce is a PPM bass.
