

Janet Perkins
Executive Director, Ret.
Princeton GirlChoir

Janet Perkins has been a resident of Princeton since 1989 when she moved east from Neenah, WI. She retired in 2012 after serving as Executive Director of the Princeton Girlchoir for 15 years. Earlier she had been the Director of Alumni Affairs at Princeton Day School and had worked in the Alumni and Development department of the Lawrenceville School. At the start of her career, Janet taught in elementary schools in Virginia, Tennessee, Wisconsin, and New Jersey.

Before becoming Executive Director of the Princeton Girlchoir, Janet served on the board of directors for 4 years. She currently serves on the Advisory Committee of Princeton Girlchoir; the Steering Committee of the nonprofit Community Works organization; the Princeton Area Arts Consortium; the Steering Committee of Sing with Us, and the board of YWCA Newcomers. While serving as Executive Director of the Princeton Girlchoir, Janet frequently represented the group at Chorus America annual meetings.

Janet earned a B.A. in Elementary Education at Southern Methodist University. She lives in Princeton, NJ and is the mother of two grown children who live in Richmond, VA and Atlanta, GA.

She joined the Princeton Pro Musica Board of Trustees in 2013, served as Vice President 2016-17, and as President 2018-19. In 2019-20 Janet continues on the board as Past President.
